July 2009 Newsletter

Copper Pickle

August- Jeremy Eden
September – Kimberly Holback
October – Ryan Wilson

There is room for 7 paintings to be displayed. They would like to have a piece above each table that is against the wall. Use existing hangers. Be careful that pieces are hung on the anchors in the mortar not the brick. Also, please arrange to hang your pictures the same day the former display is coming down. They prefer not having blank walls for any length of time.

Fowlerville Library

August – TBA
September – Mary Lee Woodham
October - TBA

The library has shelf space and no hangers.

Howell Carnegie Library

August – Kimberly Holback
September – Krista McCurdy
October – Armayne Lyons

Howell Main Street Winery

The Main Street Winery has postponed their art exhibit until after September of 2009.

There is an opportunity to display artwork at the Uptown Coffee Shop. Let Sharon Fisher know if you are interested, and she will pass your name and address on to the owner Nate.

News You Can Use

From Chris Drake Newsletter

Chairperson: I would like to offer my thanks to Linda for her excellent job with the newsletter. I can only aspire to be half as good. If you have not yet gotten your story into print, contact me. I know we would all like to get to know you better. Also, if you have a particular artist you would like to see a biography of, articles and/or suggestions would be heartily appreciated.

As I See It

The “As I See It” exhibit items have been selected and are now available. The box contains items that must be included in your artwork for this competition. Your painting or photo may contain other items as well, but the items in the box are a must. The winning art piece will be selected by popular vote at the All-Media Art Show in September. If you would like to enter this competition a signup sheet will be at the general meeting. If you have questions please see Sharon Fisher.

American Frame

Each time our members place an order with American Frame and include the code # A381 LFAA will receive 5% of their order total, donated back to our group, in the form of a quarterly check. www.americanframe.com or phone 1-888-628-3833.
