Solo Exhibitions 2009

To sign up for an exhibit, see Jeremy Eden Solo Exhibits Coordinator, at the general meeting, or contact by phone . Have your art seen by hundreds of people in one of the following locations.

Copper Pickle

September – Kimberly Holback

October – Ryan Wilson

There is room for 7 paintings to be displayed. They would like to have a piece above each table that is against the wall. Use existing hangers. Be careful that pieces are hung on the anchors in the mortar not the brick. Also, please arrange to hang your pictures the same day the former display is coming down. They prefer not having blank walls for any length of time.

Fowlerville Library

Under Construction – No display space until further notice.

Howell Carnegie Library

September – Krista McCurdy

October – Armayne Lyons

Howell Main Street Winery

The Main Street Winery has postponed their art exhibit until after September of 2009.

There is an opportunity to display artwork at the Uptown Coffee Shop. Let Sharon Fisher know if you are interested, and she will pass your name and address on to the owner Nate.

News You Can Use

As I See It

The “As I See It” exhibit items have been selected and are now available. The box contains items that must be included in your artwork for this competition. Your painting or photo may contain other items as well, but the items in the box are a must. The winning art piece will be selected by popular vote at the All-Media Art Show in September. If you would like to enter this competition a sign-up sheet will be at the general meeting. If you have questions please see Sharon Fisher.

Workshops

Sharilyn Miller

Five Wire Rings Workshop with Sharilyn Miller

August 25, 2009 (6 to 9 pm) — I've selected several of my favorite rings for this half- day workshop. Learn some great new techniques for fashioning wire rings entirely without soldering. This workshop is suitable for all skill levels.
